COMMUNITY UPDATE: THIS WEEK

It's been a busy week in Ottawa with many productive meetings, good events, and even a visit to ATV Morning and CFRA's Madely in the Morning.

Pinecrest-Queensway Health Centre AGM and Award Ceremony

This week, I had the honour of attending the Pinecrest-Queensway Community Health Centre Annual General Meeting, at which I presented the Community Volunteer award to Woodroffe United Church. Below is a small excerpt from my speaking notes about Woodroffe United:

“Over the years, Woodroffe United Church has been extremely generous to the Pinecrest-Queensway community and the Carling Family Shelter. The Church has an exceptional understanding of the needs and challenges faced by our community and they have always been willing to lend a helping hand when needed.

They are supporters of the Back-to-School Backpack program, and they have also donated both food vouchers and gift certificates to the centre and the shelter.”

Woodroffe United Church— thank you for all of your hard work in our community!

BBQ with Rabbi Mendelsohn and Ottawa's Jewish Community

Many thanks to the hundreds of guests who attended Rabbi Mendelsohn's BBQ at Centrepointe Park with my colleague MP Pierre Poilievre. It was a great success (...with great food!).

Meetings with OCRI and Speech at the Tourism Summit

This week, I had a number of meetings of local interest. I met with the Ottawa Centre for Research and Innovation (OCRI), to discuss policy trends and high tech in Ottawa. Also, I attended the Federal, Provincial and Territorial Tourism Ministers' summit in Toronto where I spoke to our Government's policies regarding air travel and tourism in Canada and in the National Capital Region.

LOOKING AHEAD:

- Parliament resumes next week
- Attending the Grand Opening of “Home Away From Home” with Health Minister Leona Aglukkaq
- Attending the annual Superwalk for Parkinson's Disease at Andrew Haydon Park
- Attending the “Support the Troops” rally
- Speaking at the 42nd Annual AGM of the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs
- Attending the Villa Marconi “World's Largest Marionette” ceremony—I attended last year and it was a terrific family event!
